

Engineering Maintenance & Installation

Engineering Maintenance & Installation Levels

LEVEL 1	LEVEL 2	LEVEL 3	LEVEL 4	APPRENTICESHIP	ADVANCED APPRENTICESHIP
	●			 Apprenticeships

Overview

For the engineering maintenance and installation industry to allow individuals the opportunity to gain national recognition for their skills in these areas. The objective of this NVQ is to ensure that the engineering maintenance and installation industry has competent personnel who can perform these skills to industry standards.

Who would benefit from this qualification?

This qualification is aimed at those who work in engineering maintenance and installation sector. It is appropriate for staff who support maintenance activities in factories, on production lines and those involved in the servicing of equipment.

Course Content

This course covers a variety of units, candidates will choose from one of the following pathways:

- Mechanical Maintenance
- Electrical Maintenance
- Electronic Maintenance
- Fluid Power Maintenance
- Services Maintenance
- Communications Electronics Maintenance
- Servicing Stair lifts
- Servicing Service Lifts
- Installing Stair Lifts
- Installing Service Lifts
- Equipment Installation

Entry Requirements:

There are no formal entry requirements for candidates undertaking this NVQ, however employers must ensure that candidates have the potential and opportunity to gain evidence for the qualification in the work place.

