Overview

Packaging operatives are an essential part of the team and are required to carry out different operational tasks from the preparation of materials and equipment prior to starting the line, through production of finished packs, on to final line close-down.

Who would benefit from this qualification?

Anyone involved in the packaging of products.

Course Content

- Start packaging operations
- Control packaging operations
- End packaging operations
- Respond to incidents, hazardous conditions and emergencies
- Work safely
- Work effectively in a team

Each unit contains a series of elements that get right to the heart of the process whether that be on an automated packaging line or in a more manual setting. Everyone needs to work in a safe manner and observe all relevant health, safety and environmental rules and regulations. In addition to the core, supporting units cover areas such as care and simple maintenance, pack sampling and routine machine changeover.

Entry Requirements:

There are no formal entry requirements for candidates undertaking this NVQ, however employers must ensure that candidates have the potential and opportunity to gain evidence for the qualification in the work place.
