

Privacy Statement

We provide this website as a service to Cambridge Regional College clients and also to visitors who may wish to know more about the College, its services and activities. We are committed to respecting and protecting the privacy of everyone who visits our site or provides us with personal information. We do not pass personal information to any party outside the organisation without prior consent.

Web statistics

We monitor website traffic to assist in the continuous improvement and development of the site, but do this only by monitoring IP addresses that are not linked in any way to any personal data, retaining the anonymity of our visitors.
