

26 November 2010

Press Release

CHRISTMAS CAROL SINGALONG AT CRC TO RAISE MONEY FOR MILTON CHILDREN'S HOSPICE

Members of the public, families and friends are invited to a free Christmas Carol Singalong at Cambridge Regional College to help raise money for the Milton Children's Hospice.

Entry to the concert is free, with organisers selling raffle tickets, mulled wine and other festive refreshments during the event to boost the charity's coffers. Staff from across the College will lead the singing and Santa is due to fly in for a special appearance.

The CRC Musical Vision event will include solos and duets from around 20 staff and include a retelling of the story "The Night Before Christmas" – making it a perfect show for all the family.

One of the show's organisers, Alison Maltby, a Student Support Tutor at the College, said up to 200 free tickets were available, with donations and sales of refreshments helping to raise money for the hospice.

To book tickets for the concert, which takes place from 6pm to 9pm, ring the College on 01223 418242.

- ends -

MEDIA ENQUIRIES:

For more information, please contact Lynn O'Shea, Communications & PR Manager, on 01223 418773 or email loshea@camre.ac.uk

NOTES TO EDITORS

Cambridge Regional College is the second largest provider of full-time education for 16 to 19 year-olds in the eastern region. The College has more than 4,000 full-time and 6,000 part-time students. Students come in from a 40-mile radius, covering Cambridge and its surrounding villages, eastern Bedfordshire, northern Essex and western Suffolk.

Over 80 per cent of full-time students are aged 16 to 18 years old and come to the College after secondary school; the rest are mature students, studying on a range of Access to Higher Education and vocational programmes. The College offers the largest and most comprehensive range of vocational courses in Cambridgeshire, and has one of the largest work-based learning contracts in the Eastern Region.