Press Release

DISCOVER YOUR CREATIVE SIDE WITH FREE CLASSES AT CRC

Ever wanted to be more creative and try your hand at print-making or discover more about jewellery? Then now's the time.

Cambridge Regional College is offering a free four-week course in Jewellery Techniques, which starts tonight (wed). Taught by talented artists, the evening class provides a great introduction to the creative art.

And tomorrow (thurs), a free four-week course in Print-making Techniques begins, introducing the basics of the craft and providing plenty of artistic inspiration to help develop your creative skills.

Both courses, which run from 6pm to 9pm until July 14 and 15, take place in the College's outstanding state-of-the-art facilities, in purpose-built art and design studios on CRC's Science Park campus.

There are still a few places left on both courses. To book a place, contact 01223 226347 or just come along on the night.

NOTES TO EDITORS

Cambridge Regional College is the second largest provider of full-time education for 16 to 19 year-olds in the eastern region. The College has around 3,500 full-time and 6,000 part-time students. Students come in from a 40-mile radius, covering Cambridge and its surrounding villages, eastern Bedfordshire, northern Essex and western Suffolk.

Over 80 per cent of full-time students are aged 16 to 18 years old and come to the College after secondary school; the rest are mature students, studying on a range of Access to Higher Education and vocational programmes. The College offers the largest and most comprehensive range of vocational courses in Cambridgeshire, and has one of the largest Train to Gain contracts in the Eastern Region.
