

Cambridge Regional College Publication Scheme

Our aim through this publication scheme is to provide guidance on the information we would routinely make available to the public, in what format this information is provided and any associated costs.

Cambridge Regional College has adopted the information classes of the Model Publication Scheme for Further Education (FE) in England, Wales and Northern Ireland. This has subsequently been approved by the Information Commissioner.

How we will provide information we will endeavour where possible to provide information electronically, either by downloading from the College website (<http://www.camre.ac.uk>) or by email. Other information will be supplied in printed/copied format.

What charges we make

We will never charge for downloading information from the College website or sending information via email. The College will make charges for copying information included in the Publication Scheme; a pricing structure is included next to the relevant information class. If information is requested not included within our scheme, we may charge any reasonable costs, and may refuse a request if the cost of providing the information is over £450 or we are legally exempt from disclosure.

We will always check whether you are happy to proceed with any costs associated to a request and payment should be received in advance of any information provided.

How long we take to provide information

We would aim to provide information requested as quickly as possible, normally within 5 working days of the receipt of the request. Where the request is more detailed we will supply the information requested within 20 working days.

Requesting Information.

Requests should be made in writing or by email to the College.

Les Black, Head of Communications & IT, Cambridge Regional College, Science Park Campus, Kings Hedges Road, Cambridge, CB4 2QT. Or email: Fol@camre.ac.uk

Please specify what information you require and include any contact information, subsequent to receipt we will contact you to discuss any costs/payment.
