ConstructEd: Empower Your Employees with Industry-Specific Teaching Skills!

Course Overview

This 12-week course, delivered one day a week, offers a blend of theoretical knowledge and practical experience. It's perfect for those who wish to gain insight into teaching or assessing, or for those who want to add teaching skills to their current skill set.

Why Choose ConstructEd?

- Develop teaching skills alongside experienced teachers in college classroom and workshop settings.
- Gain experience in lesson planning, classroom and workshop delivery, and develop reflective skills essential for teaching or delivering training.
- Achieve a Level 3 Award in Education and Training, a widely recognised qualification for trainers and teachers starting their career.

Who Can Enrol?

The programme is suitable for those who are:

- 19 or over
- Not in a current teaching role or just started a teaching role
- Competent and fluent in written and spoken English
- Looking to gain a short qualification at an advanced level.

Course Structure

The course includes both practical and theory elements. Trainees will have the opportunity to shadow current teachers, support delivery of small groups in classroom and workshop settings, and complete a 30-minute micro teach to other trainees.
